

POLICEWOMAN WANTED—Torrance police are looking for a county woman resident between 21 and 31 years of age to apply for the position of police matron. "It's a wonderful experience to be a policewoman," says Norma Simpson, here studying fine points of the penal code with Sgt. W. M. Mitchell. Policewoman Simpson has been with the force for a year and a half and "loves the excitement of the work." Applicants for the position must apply before 5 p. m. Wednesday.

SERVICE SHELLS—All the way from the South Pacific came this collection of rare seashells owned by Mrs. Allie May West, 1619 W. 216th St. Mrs. West's son, Bob, sent them from his station on Enewetok in the Marshall Islands. Collectors gather the shells while still alive and bury them in the sand for the ants to clean, Mrs. West says. Mrs. West, a practical nurse, has lived in Torrance for 35 years. She has four girls and six boys, five of whom served in World War II.

Double Header Gardena Today Derby Slated at

A big double-header is set for Gardens; Fred Thompson, Long Hot Rods will be presented in the afternoon with a full eleven event program of races, and Sunday night a Gigantic Destruction Derby featuring the wrecking of more than 50 automobiles will be presented, with team races now being an added attraction. Heading the field of drivers for the Hot Rods will be "Irish" Jack Kelly, Riverside; Bill Mangold, Compton; Jack Austin, El Monte; Paul Jones, Torrance; Bob Hogle, Buena Park; Art Atkinson, Pasadena; Chuck Towson, Los Angeles; Termite Snyder, Los Angeles; Ray Bunch, Bell Gardens Stadium today. The CJA Beach.

More than 50 of the top Hot Rod pilots from all over the Southland will be on hand at 1 p.m. for time trials, and 2:30 when the program of races is topped by a 30-lap feature.

50 Cars Demolished
This evening in the big Gigantic Destruction Derby, some 50 cars will be totally demolished in front of the grandstand in nine separate events with 10 different teams, including a negro team headed by Dick Hawkins, ace driver.

A special race for women drivers will also highlight the program. On hand to entertain all the children will be famous television stars Bozo the Clown, and Uncle Luther and the colorful Dick Lane will narrate the program.

Both mothers and little girls find Breck Creme Rinse helpful when combing the hair after a shampoo. A creme rinse takes only a minute and eliminates snarls, tangles and fly-away hair, leaving it soft, easy to comb and arrange. It gives the hair lustre and body without leaving an oily appearance. Breck Creme Rinse is especially helpful in the care of dry, brittle hair.
